

Campus Asis Photo Journal

Park Yeana, Korea University, Republic of Korea

Academic Experience

- While studying economy with foreigners, discussing various topics and conducting projects as a team, I improved my language and communication skills, and I was able to experience various cultures.

The challenge of non-regular employment in Japan's labor market

- Responsibility:
 - Introduction (Chiharu)
 - Definition of non-regular employment
 - Put in a Japanese context
 - Statistics on non-regular employment
 - Introduce arguments
 - Analysis
 - (Kotaro) Cause
 - What is causing non-regular employment?
 - Gives companies flexibility
 - "been utilizing non-regular workers due to being unable to recruit regular workers"
 - Distinguish between voluntary and involuntary non-regular employment
 - Distinguish between small and big companies (everyone wants

Waseda Kendo Club

- I played kendo with Japanese in the suzerain state of kendo. I learned a lot from them who practiced kendo for more than 10 years. I was also able to make good Japanese friends by doing various activities together.

Japan Trip

- I had a great time traveling to various places such as Tokyo, Okinawa, and Sapporo.

Thank you for the support of Campus Asia.